

May 26, 2023

Dear Heavenly Brickks,

Thank you so much for your recent gift on May 17, 2023. I'm pleased to enclose your new Winners Circle certificate and lapel pin that recognize you at the Silver level for 2022-2023.

Your increased generosity means so much because you are enabling Special Olympics to reach out to more individuals with intellectual disabilities here in New York and beyond.

Generous and loyal friends like you, Heavenly Brickks, are so important to us. And when you increase your level of support, it's inspiring to all of us who see the power of your gifts at work every day!

You are helping us improve the quality of all our sports training and competition activities today, and helping us unlock the extraordinary gifts of each of our athletes.

As their confidence grows, the combined voices of our over 3 million athletes worldwide are being heard and changing the attitudes of everyone they meet on what it means to be different.

Thank you again, Heavenly Brickks, for the vital role you are playing in Special Olympics. I hope you will display your new certificate and pin with the same pride that you are instilling in our athletes.

Sincerely,
Stacey B. Hengsterman
