Dear Friends,

Thank you for your recent gift. Your wačháptognaka — generosity — helps provide a loving home-away-from-home, nutritious meals, a top-notch education and a very special holiday season for more than 200 Lakota (Sioux) children at St. Joseph's Indian School.

As I watch the students interact in the classroom, on the playground and in their homes, I am grateful for the many blessings each student has received from caring people like you, their thiyóšpaye — extended family.

When you count your blessings, please remember all the good you are doing for the less fortunate — especially the Lakota children at St. Joseph's Indian School. You are certainly one of their many blessings, as well.

You and your loved ones — especially those serving our country — are remembered each day in our prayers and at Holy Mass. May your holidays be filled with many blessings.

Happy Thanksgiving!

God bless,

Have a Happy Thanksgiving!

Fr. J. Anthony Kluckman, SCJ
Chaplain
