Dear Friends,

Wóphila thánka — many thanks — for your gift. The warmer weather is making the Lakota (Sioux) children anxious to be outdoors riding bikes or shooting a few hoops. Their renewed energy and bright eyes bring joy to my heart!

In my visits around campus, I see how our students grow and learn every day. The loving guidance of their houseparents, teachers and support staff help students in their academic skills. Thank you for offering each student HOPE as a true kholá — friend.

Philámayaye — thank you — for sharing your blessings so willingly with the boys and girls. May our prayers and continued guidance help each child through many new and wonderful adventures as they overcome life's challenges and achieve their hope-filled dreams.

In their daily prayers, the children ask the Lord's blessings on you, and your loved ones. May the warm spring days also bring renewed hope to you!

God bless,

Fr. J. Anthony Kluckman, SCJ
Chaplain
